

StampAuction NETWORK
equipping the collector to make informed decisions!

The PTS and StampAuctionNetwork are delighted to announce that PTS Shields are now visible on StampAuctionNetwork. Clients will now see the PTS Shield alongside PTS Members on the homepage and Auction Firm Profiles.

See it for yourself!

PTS Chairman, Simon Carson says, “I am thrilled that StampAuctionNetwork is supporting our members in showing off their PTS Shields – a true sign of integrity, and care for the hobby as a whole. This is yet another example of how forward-thinking philatelic organisations can work together to promote the best in the trade. If you are a PTS Member and are not already registered with StampAuctionNetwork, I would encourage you to reach out to the team to learn more about how joining might help you do better business whether you run auctions, retail and/ or coins.”

Did you know that StampAuctionNetwork now offers retail / “buy it now” formats, and is supporting firms who also offer coins? And they have a special offer for PTS Members who are thinking about joining or rejoining StampAuctionNetwork making listing your first catalogue risk free! Dave Kern at StampAuctionNetwork says, “StampAuctionNetwork is passionate about the hobby. We love working with the PTS and Stampex, and its members on new initiatives to open up philately to as many people as possible. We ourselves are proud members of the PTS so it is a great pleasure to promote our fellow members on the platform.”

The PTS (Philatelic Traders' Society) was founded in 1929 and represents hundreds of philatelic professionals worldwide. The PTS also hosts Virtual Stampex and Stampex International in London. It supports and promotes its members and seeks to collaborate with other institutions to promote the hobby and stimulate collector activity and knowledge sharing.

All PTS Members are vetted and monitored and must adhere to the PTS's Code of Conduct. All membership fees help us invest in projects to deliver for our members, future proof the society, and support the trade and hobby more widely. Whilst there are added benefits to Gold Membership such as use of the gold shield and extra advertising space, Gold Members pay a little extra each year so that the society can invest even more in innovative projects and initiatives.

If you're already on StampAuctionNetwork but are not yet a PTS Member, why not get in touch with the PTS today to enquire about joining. There are benefits to you as a business, and your contributions towards the society support the PTS in the work it does to promote the philatelic profession and the hobby far and wide.

We hope you can make some time to browse StampAuctionNetwork today, and make sure you subscribe to the StampAuctionNetwork and PTS & Stampex Newsletters to keep in touch with the news and offers.
