Virtual Stampex 2024 Registration is Open!

“The Philatelic Traders’ Society is proud to announce that Virtual Stampex is back for 2024, and promises to deliver yet another world class, innovative, and energising philatelic experience for collectors all around the world.”

Virtual Stampex 2024 is back, and once again we have brought new innovations and attractions to the event. The show, proudly sponsored by Spink, connects you to the philatelic community all over the world - an opportunity to Learn, Buy, Sell, Connect, Share and Explore.

Since 2020, Virtual Stampex has pushed the boundaries of what is possible in the online philatelic events space. Whilst Stampex at the BDC in London is in a very strong position (with the show nearly selling out in less than 4 days of sales opening!), we know that more and more collectors shop online, subscribe to price lists online, view catalogues online, watch presentations online, bid online, and chat to friends online. Virtual Stampex gives thousands of collectors an immersive portal dedicated to showcasing the very best in the hobby. And it’s free to attend.

Key experiences at Virtual Stampex 2024:

-  Meet PTS Members to buy, sell and discover new treasures
-  Shop direct with our new in-built catalogue
-  Chat live via text, audio and video
-  Join Roundtables to chat to collectors with similar interests
-  Attend Talks in our Auditorium
-  Visit our new “Display Your Way” hall to see philatelic collections presented like you’ve never seen before!
-  Meet philatelic societies from around the world
-  Chat with friends and fellow philatelists in our Collectors Lounge!

The show is live 24 hours a day from the 2nd to the 4th May. All aspects of the event are fully integrated allowing visitors to move seamlessly around the show – on laptop, desktop, tablet, mobile and the vFairs App. Live chat and video calling is available across the event itself to help visitors to connect with friends, dealers, and fellow collectors from around the globe. Our Virtual Briefcase enables attendees to collect and download all relevant catalogues, information packs, games, price lists, and more.

Simon Carson, The PTS Chair comments:

“The PTS is proud to be hosting the biggest and boldest Virtual Stampex yet, with new chat and shopping features as well as our exciting ‘Display Your Way’ Hall. We are passionate about nurturing, supporting and celebrating all collectors, wherever you are in your collecting journey. This unique annual event will also include world class talks and fascinating roundtable discussions – with now even more seats available around the table! I really look forward to seeing you there.”

Live chat and live events will take place around the clock for 72 hours. After the live period, the show will be On Demand until the 31st May for visitors to still browse booths and offers, displays, leave messages, watch the Stampex Talks in the Auditorium, and more.

Registration for the event is now open at <https://stampex.vfairs.com>
